

The Creed of the Holy Thelemic Church

2010 e.v.

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

I believe in one Holy and non sectarian Thelemic Church, an eclectic fellowship dedicated to the popular celebration & catechism of the holy liberational Law of Thelema.

I accept the Book of the Law as the Word and the Letter of Truth, and the sole Rule of Life.

I acknowledge the Authority of the Beast 666 and of the Scarlet Woman as in the book it is defined, and accept Their Will as concentrating the Will of The Holy Thelemic Church.

I accept the Crowned and Conquering Child as the Lord of the Aeon, and exert myself to establish His reign upon Earth.

I acknowledge that "The word of the Law is Thelema" and that "Love is the law, love under will."

I accept those orders in the Book of the Law that apply to myself as being necessarily in accordance with my own true will, and execute the same to the letter with all the energy, courage, and ability that I can command. This applies especially to the work of extending the Law in the world, wherein my proof is mine own success, the witness of my Life to the Law, that hath given me light in my ways, and liberty to pursue them. Thus doing, I payeth my debt to the Law that hath freed me by working its will to free all men; and I proveth myself worthy in The Holy Thelemic Church by willing to bring my fellows into freedom.

Love is the law, Love under will.
